ATTN: Mr. Clyde W. Elliott

Dear General Erskine:

With reference to your memorandum of 8 June, we are returning the enclosed resumes of the nominees selected for assignment to the Office of the Secretary of Defense for detail for duty with the Coordination Staff of the Director of Central Intelligence.

As mentioned in our telephone conversation of last Thursday, we are very pleased with the obvious high caliber of the four gentlemen. General Cabell concurs in their detail to this Staff.

We are in full accord with General Willens' proposal that [redacted] be detailed to the Staff during the interim period pending the availability of [redacted]. We would appreciate the very early detail of [redacted] to assist us in preparing a report for consideration by the United States Intelligence Board (USIB) pertaining to future plans and programs of the intelligence community. As you know, the USIB expects a report on or about 1 July.
